PRACTICE

Described in the most recent editions of the legal directories as “an excellent junior” who is “extremely hard-working, very bright” and “the best senior junior in construction we have ever instructed”, Zulfikar is ranked as a leading junior in the fields of construction and international arbitration. He is recognised for having a “super work ethic, very clever with an excellent memory and an attention to detail far beyond mere mortals” and as someone whose “submissions and cross-examination is first-rate”. He has been identified as a “future leader” in the field of construction by Who’s Who Legal for the last two years.

Zulfikar practices across all areas of the construction, engineering, energy and IT sectors in both the domestic and international context.

His practice combines substantial UK infrastructure projects (with a number under PFI) along with major projects in Asia-Pacific, the Middle East and Africa. His recent experiences includes projects relating to major hospitals, airports, city centre transport, oil refineries and energy plants.

He has a particular focus on large, technically complex, international disputes.

He has been instructed in as counsel in a range of dispute resolution procedures including litigation, arbitration, adjudication and mediation. He has experience in advising and drafting pleadings in relation to all aspects of his practice. As part of his role he has been asked to advise on tactical as well as legal issues and is experienced in pre-action matters. He is regularly instructed as both junior and sole counsel, and has appeared in a number of trials in both court and arbitration, as well as at various interim hearings.

In addition to purely legal and tactical issues, he has been involved in cases dealing with a wide range of highly technical issues in the construction and engineering sector. His experience extends to cases requiring the involvement of multiple experts in a number of different disciplines and in particular experts dealing with architectural, engineering, fire safety, delay and quantum issues.

INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION

Recognised as a leading junior in Chambers and Partners UK Bar Guide and The Legal 500 for International Arbitration Zulfikar has an extensive international arbitration practice and has been involved in a large number of cases across the world. His experience has seen him act and advise in arbitrations conducted under a number of arbitral rules and various governing laws in several jurisdictions including issues relating to appeals in domestic courts. This includes the following:

- Instructed by a Middle Eastern government entity in an arbitration against a multi-national joint venture in an ultra-high value ICC dispute (claims of over $1 billion) in relation to the design and construction of a flagship $2 billion plus medical care and research centre. He has been instructed to appear at multiple hearings to date with further hearings scheduled. The dispute is governed by foreign law and seated in London.
- Instructed by an employer in relation to an EPC contract concerning the construction of an oil refinery in North Africa.
- Instructed as sole counsel in relation to disputes arising out of the construction of leisure facilities including a hotel. The dispute is governed by UAE Law and seated in the UAE.
- Instructed to appear as sole counsel by an engineering company in an ICC arbitration in relation to the provision of design, engineering and project management services with regard to the construction of a power plant in Germany. Instructed to appear at a one week hearing in London dealing with all matters.
- Instructed as junior counsel in a dispute relating to the construction of airport facilities in the Middle East. The dispute was governed by foreign law. Instructed from the outset and appeared at an ICC arbitration hearing in the Middle East.
- Instructed as sole counsel in relation to a dispute concerning various work packages in the context of a project relating to the expansion and refurbishment of an oil refinery in North Africa. Instructed to appear at a final LCIA arbitration hearing in London.
- Instructed as junior counsel by an EPC contractor in relation to the upgrading and expansion of various items of mining equipment at a mine in Mozambique. The dispute was governed by foreign law and Zulfikar was instructed to appear at an ICC arbitration hearing in London.
- Instructed as junior counsel by an investment fund in respect of a matter relating to the sale and purchase of solar panel production lines to an SPV. Instructed to appear at a two-week hearing in Hong Kong. The dispute was governed by Hong Kong law.
- Instructed as junior counsel by the Hong Kong government in an HK$800M arbitral claim made by a JV consortium in respect of a road construction project which was to be heard in three tranches. Involved in all aspects of the case and appeared at the first tranche five-week hearing. Following closing submissions, the matter was settled. The dispute was governed by Hong Kong law and the seat of the arbitration was Hong Kong.
- Instructed as junior counsel in an SCMA dispute governed by Singapore Law concerning the wholesale conversion of a semi-submersible oil rig in a Rotterdam shipyard. The dispute concerned issues of variations, loss and expense and delay. Involved in providing advice, drafting pleadings, drafting disclosure requests and settling witness statements in London, Rotterdam and Singapore. Was involved in multiple substantive hearings over a three year period in Singapore.

- Instructed as junior counsel in a four week ad-hoc arbitration concerning the construction of a private residence in the Bahamas governed by Bahamian Law. The seat was Nassau.

CONSTRUCTION, ENGINEERING AND INFRASTRUCTURE

Zulfikar has consistently been considered as a leading junior in construction in the Chambers UK Bar Guide and The Legal 500, both in the UK and Middle East guides. His experience of a wide range of claims and disputes arising in the construction and engineering context. Disputes have ranged from single domestic dwellings to large commercial developments including energy related projects such as power plants and waste processing facilities.

He is regularly instructed in respect of High Court matters and to appear in the High Court. Examples of his recent work include:

- Instructed as junior counsel to defend an application brought pursuant to Section 68 of the Arbitration Act 1996.
- Case concerning the proper interpretation of a contractual termination provision in relation to an energy from waste plant.
- Instructed as counsel in a substantial PFI dispute relating to highways management.
